

Dear Daughter,

Revelation 3:20 states "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me."

Slow down. Take your time. Those are your next orders: because patience is a virtue. When you rush, you become overwhelmed, frustrated, and angry. This also gives the enemy room to slither his way in more discreetly because you may not be paying attention. In this season I want you to stand your ground and stay on your post. In all honesty, I want to spend more time with you above anything else. I want to come before your plans, tasks, or scheduling. Will you dwell with me here? Daughter? In the place of the unknown? Because if and when you do, I have all of heaven waiting to back you up; and to give you the desires of your heart. My precious child. I have all the jewels stored up just for you. Will you sup with me?

your loving father, Christ
